

CURRENT RESEARCH

1. Improving spatio-temporal survey and mapping of endemic, emerging and neglected diseases in West Africa, with emphases on African swine fever, COVID-19, Ebola virus disease, Influenza, Lassa fever and rabies;
2. Functional adaptation of the use of Geographic Information Systems (GIS) to the surveillance of human-animal diseases in West Africa;
3. Unification of veterinary laboratory, animal and human hospital data into Laboratory Activity Management Information Systems (SILAB) as a hub towards achieving more effective communication and network coordination in African regional zoonoses surveillance, control and prevention;
4. Studies on indigenous knowledge, attitude and practices associated with the spread of trans-boundary animal disease and zoonoses in West Africa.